RANKING		Description for teams or players
ELITE	Open	Formally coached or may have the equivalent skill level through experience. Post Olympic players compete at this level
Advanced	AA	Many years of experience and have been formally coached. Exemplary defense and offense skills! - Post College players compete at this level
Advanced	A	Solid all around and can defend the ball very well. Their offense is good but at times might lack solid ball placement/control
Intermediate	BB	Hold their own. They have developed good passing skills. Most players can defend the ball well but struggle with ball control from time to time. Players can hit the ball hard but struggle blocking effectively at times.
Intermediate	B	Good offensive skills but are limited in ball placement and the ability to hit various types of hits. Defense can be solid but not always consistent.
Fundamentalist	CC	Decent offensive skills but are very limited in various types of hits and ball placement. Defense is not always consistent but can pick some hard hits.
Fundamentalist	C	Working on proper court coverage, launching a decent offense and defense is good but limited to "free ball" type balls and some harder hits.
Beginner	DD	Learning court coverage and proper hitting, blocking, passing, setting and serving techniques. Brand new to 5-1/6-2 rotations.
Newbie	D	Has a really good grasp on the general concept of volleyball with six people on the court. Does not know proper court coverage and has very little technique in hitting, blocking, passing, setting and serving
